SUMMARY:

A speed boat built by Halmatic, she is strong, stable and powerful. Lima Lima I has an economical 150hp Volvo diesel inboard coupled to an outdrive with twin counter rotating props, giving fast and smooth acceleration.

She is capable of a rapid 30 knots and forms an ideal platform for filming duties, as a Thames safety or survey boat and for a range of other high-speed applications. Lima Lima I was used in the filming of Guy Ritchie's Sherlock Holmes, as well as many other productions.
